

Johnson O'Malley Program

The Sac and Fox Nation Johnson O'Malley Program is a comprehensive program that encompasses academic education, cultural awareness and community involvement according to the guidelines of the federal regulations governing the JOM programs. The Sac and Fox Nation JOM program provides assistance to ensure that all school districts within the Nation's program service area (Lincoln, Payne and Pottawatomie counties) are in compliance with the federal guidelines and that each JOM site provides parental support and involvement that will ultimately result in the academic success of our Native American students.

JOM funding can be used for:

- Tutoring
- School Supplies
- ACT fees and other items
- Cultural Awareness
- Educational Support
- Academic Summer Programs
- Indian Education Committee
- JOM Program Staff
- School Related Fees

Eligible Indian students must meet the following criteria:

1. Be a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe or show proof of at least one-quarter (1/4) degree blood quantum of a tribe.
2. Be enrolled in a public school served by the Sac and Fox Nation JOM program attending any level of Pre-K through Grade 12.
